

This Project is co-funded by the European Union

Lunch Presentation of the SIRIUS Network

European Policy Network on the education of children and youth people with a migrant background

Location: Kindly hosted by the Representation of the Free State of Bavaria to the European Union, Rue Wiertz 77, 1000 Brussels

Date: 11 March, 2013

---

- 12.00 Arrival of participants (Lunch will be served upon arrival)
- 12.15 Welcome note by Dr. Philipp Stiel, Representation of the Free State of Bavaria to the European Union and introduction of participants
(chaired by Miguel Essomba, University of Barcelona)
- 12.30 “Introduction: What is the SIRIUS network on migrant education?”
(Miguel Essomba, University of Barcelona)
- 12.45 “National consultations: How do policymakers implement policies on migrant education?”
(Claudia Koehler, University of Bamberg)
- 13.00 “Literature review : What are the best practices on implementing migrant education policies?”
(Jana Huttova, Open Society Institute)
- 13.15 “Peer review of professional development: Helping teachers to help migrant students”
(Sabine Severiens, University of Amsterdam)
- 13.30 “Best practice example: mentoring projects for and by immigrants”
(Maurice Crul, Erasmus University in Rotterdam and Jens Schneider, University of Osnabrueck )
- 13.45 Discussion
- 14.45 “Building an EU community for migrant education”
(Thomas Huddleston, Migration Policy Group)
- 15.00 End of the meeting

SIRIUS: European Policy Network on the education of children and young people with a migrant background

---

Lifelong Learning Programme – Call for proposals EAC/01/2011 – Decision no 1357/2008/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council