

Here, but not yet here.
The Human Rights Dimension of Immigrant Integration Policy

Friday, 7 February 2014

12.00–14.00

Venue: Friedrich-Naumann-Stiftung für die Freiheit,
Avenue de Cortenbergh 71, 1000 Brussels

About the event

Every year millions of people leave their home countries, driven out by political persecution or in search of a better future for themselves and their families. Of those who leave, thousands will never reach their destinations. And for those who reach safer havens, the new beginnings often bring new problems: bureaucracy, unemployment, poverty, homelessness and discrimination. The challenges in areas such as integration, citizenship, political participation, family reunification and work migration should not be underestimated. In addition, the common practice of gender-neutral policies often affects migrant women to their disadvantage, leaving them even more vulnerable. Are current European and national migration and migrant integration policies lagging behind reality? What reforms are needed? What challenges need to be overcome to enforce a holistic immigrant integration policy?

Invitation

Welcome

Hans H. Stein

Director International Political Dialogue
Friedrich Naumann Foundation for Freedom

Speaker

Lara Natale

Coordinator
European Network of Migrant Women

Thomas Huddleston

Director, Migration and Integration Programme
Migration Policy Group

Moderation

Ruben Dieckhoff

Desk Officer for Human Rights
Friedrich Naumann Foundation for Freedom

For a world of FREEDOM

50 years of International Politics

Kindly register by 6 February 2014 via <http://tinyurl.com/Immigration07Feb> or email register.brussels@fnst.org.

Please be advised that photographs will be taken at the event for use on the FNF website, social media, in the press, FNF marketing materials, and other publications. By entering this event, you consent to FNF photographing and using your image and likeness.